Commander's Update By RADM Paul C. Dyl

Rear Admiral
Paul C. Dyl

Hello everyone!

Well a lot has been happening over the past two months. Since our last newsletter we have launched two new shuttles, the USS George Washington and the USS Bellerophon. With this we have lost some crewmembers as they take on the challenges of organizing and running a chapter. We say goodbye to CDR James Nelson and BG Michael Timko who have taken on command, serving on the USS George Washington. Also we say goodbye to CDR Carol Dyl and LCMDR Ashley Walker who have also taken on command, serving on the USS Bellerophon.

New Members

I want to take this moment to recognize a new additions to our crew. Please welcome Kay Coots, Greg Coots, Jackie Coots, Seth Coots, Mary Joe Coots and Jake Coots. Also we have Kathy McClullan, McKenzie Mosses All had served with me back on the USS Liberty many years ago.

Retention

It's great to report to you all that we are 100% in retention for 2014. We start all over in January 2015. The yard sale events have helped many members not to have to pay out of pocket dues and most of you have decided to opt for the electronic membership the STARFLEET now offers.

Chapter Web Site

We have made some progress on the chapter website. Michael Timko has agreed to continue to work on this project until it is completed. Thank you Michael.

Chapter Handbook

We have had some delays with the Handbook. Some of it is the coding, some has been the time I can devote to it and other issues deal with the design of the handbook. I plan to go into more details in our next issue of the newsletter.

CQ News!

STARFLEET, Chief Communications announced that the two issues #177 and #178 are now available online to download. You will need to log into the SFI database and go to the Communications link on the left to get it.

Department Head Vacancies

With many of the Department Heads leaving to take on the challenges of their own chapters, this has left a vacuum in our own chapter leadership. Some have already come forward asking about the positions. The current vacancies are: Chief Operations, Chief Support Services, Chief Security, Chief Diplomatic Corps, Chief Joint Special Operations, and Chief Communications. For more information please read the vacancy announcement later in the newsletter and the chapter handbook.

New First Officer

I would like to take this time to announce the appointment of our new First Officer. Admiral David Miller has agreed to take on the additional role of First Officer along with being the Chief Medical Officer. Admiral Miller stepped up to help me out until I can find a more permanent individual to replace him.

Other Chapters

As many of you may have heard, we had two groups leave us to other chapters so that they can launch their own chapters. This was done for two reasons. First, we already are supporting two chapters and with the turn-over of experience, I felt that anymore could strain us. Second, it gives those members a chance to see how another chapter works. We will still be here to help if needed.

Now we had two more groups who are still with us and they have not asked for us to support them officially, but I have decided that if we can get ourselves back up to full Department Heads, then we would consider it.

Well my time is up, so I hope to have more for you in two months.

Commanding Officer

R1 RC Update By VADM Ruth Lane

Saturday morning there was an AB call.

Membership processing has a backlog of pending memberships and packages, also a list of problems to fix. All memberships had been processed up till May 17th. Matt Ingles stepped down because his job has become very busy in real life. Bran Stimpson has taken over the membership processing department and plans to meet with Matt around Tuesday to do the department handover. Bran expects that he and his department will process the pending memberships and packages fairly fast following the transfer of the department.

The AB voted to uphold their original decision after reviewing the Appeals Board report on Reed Bates. Reed is under sanctions until January 2015. She had stepped down from R3's Chief of Staff a couple weeks ago. This ends any conflicts there. The AB will be reviewing problems, defects/holes, that came to light with this situation with our documents.

The CQ department is working hard to get caught up and deliver the back issues of the CQ. They have enlisted the help from Jon Lane, we were told, to help with the catch up. If anyone would like to volunteer to help the CQ department, contact Liz Woolf at comms@sfi.org. I am sure they would welcome the help.

Wayne K. has been working 16 hour days and will be going back to a normal work day in a couple weeks. He will be able to focus even more on being CS and communication better.

The CS has been talking to other members of the ECAB to look into possibly moving STARFLEET from North Carolina to another state. They are looking at how taxes are done, proxies for meetings, voting processes among other things.

The AB will be having another conference call in a few weeks for the ECAB meeting and votes. Like last year, they would like to get most of the voting down on the call so that the ECAB meeting will not take long and the members of the ECAB can go and have fun.

Regional Appointments

The new R1 Relief Coordinator is Commodore James Cecil. Thank you for all that applied for the position.

USS HELEN PAWLOWSKI Promotions Update

By RADM PAUL DYL

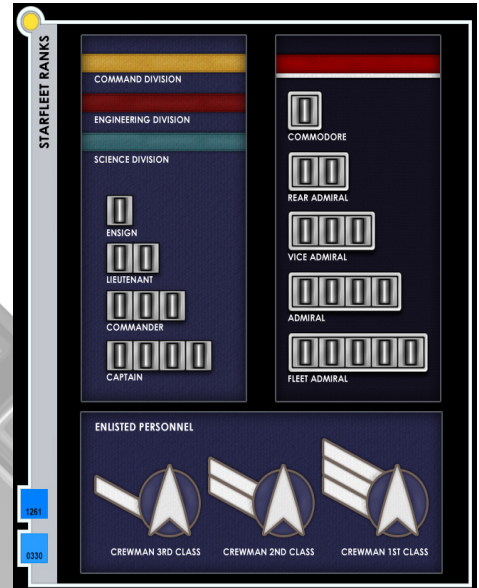

As the Commanding Officer promoting a deserving crewmember is one of the key duties I enjoy most. Again congratulations to you all.

Remember that for Officer ranks, OTS is a prerequisite and depending on the rank being recommended for, OCC could also be a prerequisite.

The next promotion board will be on September 13th. The board members will still be Paul Dyl, Gary Reynolds, Kattie Staples, Douglas Kirk and Carl Mogilka.

Any promotions that were either denied or returned without action will be sent back to the Department Chief with an explanation as to why the promotion was denied.

Promotion to Commander

James Nelson
Security

If you have any questions pertaining to the chapter promotion system, please reference your Regulation 100.

Please review the Time in Grade requirement in Regulation 100. If you feel that you qualify for a promotion, see your Department Head. She/he will assist you in completing the chapter promotion worksheet and having it submitted to the Operations Department.

Engineering Officer's Update By LTJG Gary Reynolds

That is it for this report, I look forward to my next report.

LTJG Gary Reynolds
Chief Engineering Officer
USSPawlowskiEngineering@ec.rr.com

LTJG Gary Reynolds

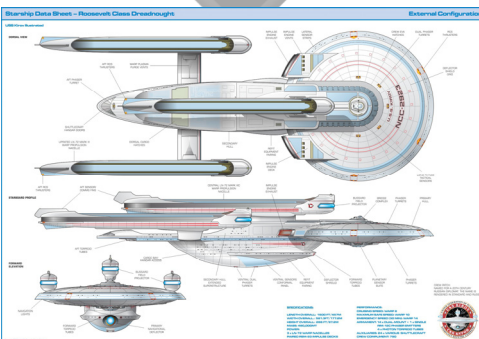

Hello everyone! Welcome to another Engineering Report.

We have added a few more ship classes and schematics to our library this month. We have had some trouble with the database as we continue to archive all the data files. If database management is your interests, please volunteer and lend us a hand.

The Engineering Department has plenty of vacancies and in all sections. If your interested with ship and equipment design and how it all works, please look at the Engineering section of the membership handbook for further position descriptions.

Security Officer's Update Vacant

Position for USS Helen Pawlowski Chief Security Officer is now open for applications.

The Chief Security Officer can have many duties, including, but not limited to: Provide security for chapter activities and be prepared to assist with security operations at the Regional and Fleet Levels when requested. Also assists with safety issues and information. The department also sponsors the chapters online gaming activities.

Job Qualifications:

- Be a member of Starfleet in good standing for at least one year.
- Be a member of the Chapter in good standing for at least 6 months.
- Preferably a "knowledgeable" person on the subject matter.
- Passed OTS.
- Passed OCC or working on it which must be completed within six months of appointment to the Chief of Communications position.
- Must have reliable internet access each day.
- Must have reliable e-mail access each day. The fact that the internet and e-mail are now the most used forms of communication force this to be a requirement for a Department Chief.

- Sense of humor and a great attitude. Absolute musts!!!!

- Demonstrated leadership abilities, this could be on your department or in real life or both.
- Have pride and enthusiasm in the chapter.
- The ability to perform duties in a timely and responsible manner.

While it is true that this is a volunteer position, you will have certain duties that MUST be done regularly as a Department Chief.

- Willingness to invest personal time, effort, money for postage, and etc. to perform an important, but sometimes thankless, job for the benefit of chapter members.

- Specific requirements for the position are available in the chapter Membership Handbook under the department for which you are applying for.

Requirements of the Job:

- Must report to the chapter's First Officer each month on or before 10th of the month.
- Contribute to the chapter newsletter on a regular basis.
- Must continue to contact members and spread the word about your department to new members.
- Must continually improve your department to make it fresh and interesting for the chapter.
- Must take pride in the job and serving as a chapter Department Chief.

If you are interested in applying, send what you think is pertinent in your Real Life Resume and Fleet Resume with a paragraph detailing what you would do with the department if chosen as the Chief Security Officer.

Thank you,

Marine Officer's Update

By 1LT Douglas Kirk

1LT Douglas Kirk

Hello Marines! The past month or so has had some significant changes in the 120th. As you all know, 1LT Sam Phillips transferred over to our sister ship the USS Bellerophon and is helping 2LT Michael McCarthy to organize the 129th MSG. With that said, I have assumed command of the 120th MSG and have appointed CPL Paul G Dyl as the DOIC.

The summer months are coming to an end soon and the holiday season is just around the corner. For us this means that our annual Toys for Tots project . It's still early to get into the details but just keep it in the back of your mind for now.

As you know, the 2014 IC is happening in just a few weeks from now. General David Miller will be representing the chapter and the 120th MSG during the activities. I look forward to hearing from him how everything went.

These past two months members of the 120th completed 4 SFMCA course and 39 SFA courses and we conducted our monthly gaming session of Modern Warfare; Back Ops II. We had 8 participants and two more from the USS George Washington's 130th MSG. If you have an XBOX 360 and the games Modern Warfare: Black Ops II or Ghosts and an internet connection, then you are more then welcomed to join in.

We still have plenty of the 120th MSG unit patches available for sale and also Chapter Patches. For more information, please contact Paul Dyl.

Until next time....

119th M.A.C.O. Officer's Update

By MG Paul C. Dyl

MG Paul Dyl

Greetings MACO's!

We are continuing with updating our part of the membership handbook. We are currently working on the uniform items and as soon as we get some input from the SFI Special Operations on a few items, I hope to have something out to you all.

For those of you who have been on the unit roster, you are not MACO's at this time unless you have completed your training. Currently you are all Recruits and once you complete the courses required you will advance with each stage.

ALL MACO's, you need to start working on your MACO training qualifications. The first thing you need to do is take the SFMCA PD-100 exam. This course is required before anyone can take any other courses at the SFMCA. Once you complete that, if you are enlisted, you will need to take the NCO-100 course, if you're an officer, then you will need to complete SFA course OTS.

Once you have completed those courses you are now MACO candidates. You are now ready for your training which has a total of something like 47 courses at the SFA Special Operations Collage. Make sure you're updating me as to your progress. Once you complete these courses you will be a MACO operative. If you have any questions, call me! I will point you to the right resources etc.

Well that is all I have for now. Take care, and be safe,

MG Paul Dyl

Medical Officer's Update

By ADM David Miller, MD

ADM David Miller

"Mosquito Myths"

While we're all enjoying the warm summer months, I'm sure none of us are enjoying the mosquito encounters that occur as we spend more time outdoors.

The recent news that a new mosquito-borne illness, called "chikungunya", has joined the ranks of a host of other incurable viruses carried by mosquitoes – such as West Nile, malaria, yellow fever, and dengue fever – made me realize more info about mosquitoes would make a good CMO column.

What follows is a great article from CNN detailing the facts behind five mosquito myths to help you enjoy your summer more. (The original article can be found here: http://www.cnn.com/2014/07/04/health/mosquito-bites-myths/index.html?hpt=hp_t2)

Myth No. 1: All mosquitoes bite humans

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, there are about 3,500 species of mosquitoes. Some feed on plant nectar, some on reptiles, some on birds and others on mammals. Of the species that do bite humans, it is only the females that go for blood -- the protein aids in egg production.

The Aedes vexans species, which is found in every U.S. state, does feed on humans, making it seem that all mosquitoes are out to get you.

For this species, "if you're a mammal, you're on the menu," said Joseph M. Conlon, a retired U.S. Navy entomologist and a technical adviser to the American Mosquito Control Association.

Random fact: The mosquito featured in "Jurassic Park" wouldn't have bitten humans or dinosaurs, Conlon said; it is the only species that doesn't feed on blood.

Myth No. 2: Mosquitoes are attracted to certain foods, colors and blood types

You may have heard that eating certain foods -- such as bananas, beer and garlic -- can attract or repel mosquitoes. But Conlon said, "Nothing that you eat affects mosquitoes all that much."

You can rest assured that wearing dark clothes probably won't draw mosquitoes to you either. And Conlon said a study on mosquitoes' attraction to Type O blood was later refuted due to bad statistics.

Harry Savage, chief research entomologist at the CDC, said carbon dioxide and heat are the biggest draws for mosquitoes. Scent can also play a role. Ingredients in your sweat and other skin secretions, which are often genetically determined, can make one person more attractive to a mosquito than another.

Both experts agree that size matters when it comes to being bitten.

Evidence suggests mosquitoes tend to prefer men over women, adults over children and larger people over smaller ones. Conlon said the larger figures likely produce more heat, more carbon dioxide and have more body mass to bite.

Myth No. 3: Pregnancy puts you at risk

If you think that being pregnant makes you a mosquito magnet, you aren't alone. A study published in 2000 supported the belief that mosquitoes prefer pregnant women.

But the study included only 36 pregnant women and 36 nonpregnant women, and used mosquitoes native to Gambia, a small country in Africa.

Conlon and Savage said the study might be valid, but not for the obvious reason.

Pregnant women give off more heat and carbon dioxide, which our experts said are attractive to mosquitoes. Getting hot and sweaty, and breathing heavily after a workout could potentially make you just as much of a target as a mom-to-be.

Myth No. 4: Citronella plants and candles will protect you

"Citronella is a weak repellent -- the oil. You have to crush the leaves," Conlon said. So that citronella plant on sale at the store? It's not your best bet for preventing bites.

Citronella candles aren't going to help much either. A breeze or change of wind direction can blow away any protection.

"To me, citronella only protects the candle," Savage said.

Conlon said there is no known effective area repellent. The best option is an Environmental Protection Agency-registered repellent for use on the body, such as products that contain the ingredient DEET. The EPA has an online tool for finding products that meet its standards.

Conlon also cautions against natural products claiming to repel mosquitoes. "There really isn't any evolutionary pressure to produce a (natural) repellent for humans. We are just another protein source on this planet."

Myth No. 5: The United States is free of mosquito-borne diseases

"No matter where you go in the U.S., there are good vectors (mosquitoes that transmit disease)," Savage said.

The Asian tiger mosquito, common in the Eastern and Central states, is a particular species to watch. It arrived in the United States from Asia in the 1980s, and the species is a documented carrier of dengue fever, yellow fever, chikungunya, dog heartworm and West Nile. Savage said this mosquito can be found in Ohio and Missouri, for example, and along the East Coast.

Malaria is no stranger here either. Malaria can flourish in moderate climates, Conlon said, not just in the tropics. As recent as the late 19th century, half the United States was endemic with the disease, according to the Louisiana Department of Health and Hospitals.

Of more recent concern to public health experts is the introduction of atypical or non-native viruses, such as

West Nile and chikungunya.

"More challenges are meeting our shores every day from tourism and travel. If we let our guard down, chikungunya could take hold here," Conlon said. "The world's becoming a smaller place, and some of nastiest diseases on Earth are only a six-hour plane flight away."

Science Officer's Update By LTJG Kattie Staples

Hello everyone. I am hoping that you all are enjoying your summer so far. I have really taken advantage of the warm weather and getting out to my flower garden has been a long time coming. This summer has been cooler than in the recent past which makes the gardening even more enjoyable.

Its time for our first trip this summer which will be held on 10 August. This event is a trip to the Battleship North Carolina. Many of you have been on this trip a few years ago and the tour is very good and educational. For those who wish to go we will meet at the Battleship at 10:00 am and after the tour we will have some lunch. If you plan on attending, please let me know.

Our second summer activity will be a two part event. At 10:00 am on the 17 August we will go to the NC Aquarium and then latter for the second part, we will walk through Ft. Fischer. Again let me know if you plan to attend. It does cost money to get onto the Battleship and the Aquarium.

I look forward to hearing from you and I hope as many of you can participate in the activities.

Diplomatic Officer's Update Vacant

Position for USS Helen Pawlowski Chief Diplomatic Corps is now open for applications.

The Chief Diplomatic Corps can have many duties, including, but not limited to: Coordination with both STARFLEET chapters and other Trek related organizations such as KAG, Romulan Star Empire etc. The Chief diplomatic Corps Officer also maintains information about the different races found in the Star Trek Universe and assists members with source information with courses at SFA.

Job Qualifications:

- Be a member of Starfleet in good standing for at least one year.
- Be a member of the Chapter in good standing for at least 6 months.
- Preferably a "knowledgeable" person on the subject matter.

- Passed OTS.
- Passed OCC or working on it which must be completed within six months of appointment to the Chief of Joint Special Operations position.
- Must have reliable internet access each day.
- Must have reliable e-mail access each day. The fact that the internet and e-mail are now the most used forms of communication force this to be a requirement for a Department Chief.
- Sense of humor and a great attitude. Absolute musts!!!!
- Demonstrated leadership abilities, this could be on your department or in real life or both.
- Have pride and enthusiasm in the chapter.
- The ability to perform duties in a timely and responsible manner.

While it is true that this is a volunteer position, you will have certain duties that MUST be done regularly as a Department Chief.

- Willingness to invest personal time, effort, money for postage, and etc. to perform an important,

but sometimes thankless, job for the benefit of chapter members.

Specific requirements for the position are available in the chapter Membership Handbook under the department for which you are applying for.

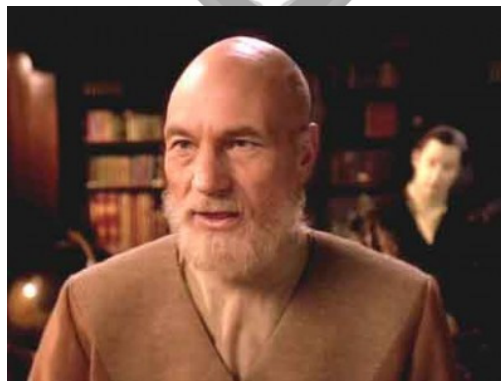

Requirements of the Job:

- Must report to the chapter's First Officer each month on or before 10th of the month.
- Contribute to the chapter newsletter on a regular basis.
- Must continue to contact members and spread the word about your department to new members.
- Must continually improve your department to make it fresh and interesting for the chapter.
- Must take pride in the job and serving as a chapter Department Chief.

If you are interested in applying, send what you think is pertinent in your Real Life Resume and Fleet Resume with a paragraph detailing what you would do with the department if chosen as the Chief Diplomatic Corps Officer.

Thank you,

RADM Paul Dyl

"Our future is our past"

The USS HELEN PAWLOWSKI NCC-8494 is a correspondence chapter of STARFLEET International. We are a Star Trek fan club that come together on a monthly basis via computer chat areas, telephone, and even video conferencing to discuss events in the Star Trek universe, whether or not your interest lie in the Classic Star Trek, Star Trek: The Next Generation, Star Trek: Deep Space Nine, Star Trek: Voyager or Star Trek: Enterprise.

Many of our crew enjoy going to the movies, to Star Trek and other Sci-Fi conventions. A great part of being able to experience the dream of Gene Roddenberry gives many of us the opportunity to help our community by volunteering in community projects such as the Angel Tree Project over Christmas and the US Marine Corps Toys for Tots.

While many volunteer to participate, others do not, but our main goal is to have FUN!
